Take one broad shouldered male, a crew cut, blue eyes, knowing grin, and strong hands. Add determination, personality, and sincerity. Garnish with letter jacket and football. The result is one of Tivy's favorites.

His creed is simple. A man who respects the dignity of the student yet demands the utmost of his ability. One whose task is to build bodies and character into a pattern of good sportsmanship. A man who when recognizing potential is willing to wait and patiently strive to develop a polished athlete. A man who is affectionally known to fellow-teachers and students as "Jody" or "Coach."

they convert raw material into polished athletes

These three men played an important part in the lives of forty football players. In the summer they trained, coached, and seasoned the Tivy Antlers for a victorious year. During the playing season they worked long hours keeping them in shape and perfecting plays. The coaches' hardest task, however, seemed to be building back up the teams spirit and morale after a defeat. With their endless patience and drive they have molded the '61 Tivy Antlers into an enduring and fighting group of football players.

1962-A YEAR OF FUN, WORK,

Senior class officers relax on the Guadalupe and discuss plans for the coming year. Enjoying the afternoon spree are Allen Stieler, vice-president; Mary Florence Koch, reporter; Karen Kinsel, treasurer; Bob Elliott, president; and Carol Hanchey, secretary.

EXCITEMENT, ROUTINE

the seniors devoted their time and energy to make '62 a "year to remember". Long, hard football workouts and 7:30 A. M. Band and Antlerettes rehearsals composed the fall schedule for many seniors. In October, the class sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance to raise money for the senior trip, and the senior girls triumphed 16-8 over the underclassmen in the powder puff game.

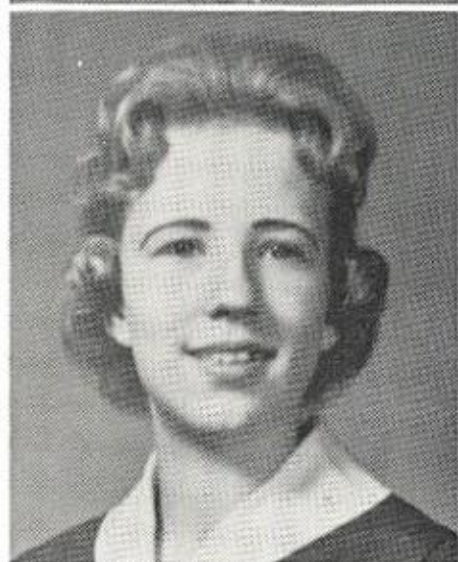

The rush and excitement of fall yielded to a cold, blustery winter, the festive season of Tivy.

Seniors will never forget the swish of light, airy formals, the sweet smell of orchids and carnations as they attended the Christmas and New Year's Dances.

As the wonderful year 1961 rolled to 1962 seniors with eyes turned toward graduation, began taking entrance exams and making college room reservations. After twelve years of school, seniors looked with mixed emotions toward graduation. It was the end of one era of their lives and the beginning of a new one.

PEOPLE WITH THINGS TO

Always ready to go are the junior officers; Scott Stehling, vice-president; Jean Woodland, president; Kaye Dempsey, secretary; Julia Wendel, treasurer.

DO, PLACES TO GO, AND PEOPLE TO SEE

typify the Junior class' busy school life.

Junior girls joined in voguish fashion parade, being some of the first on campus to be seen with frosted hair and the "above the knee" hemline.

The boys weren't to be out done as they showed-off their western vests, boots, cowboy hats, and belts.

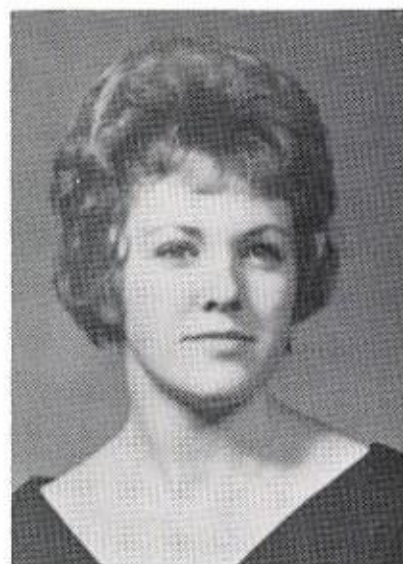

Always on the go, they watched proudly the powder puff football game. On Saturdays in November, juniors worked tirelessly and diligently washing cars to earn money for the Junior-Senior Banquet which was a highlight of senior festivities.

Junior thespians presented Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" in December which was widely acclaimed for its dramatic interpretation.

A continuous round of activity and motion kept juniors in a whirl this year, leaving them looking with anticipation toward 1963.

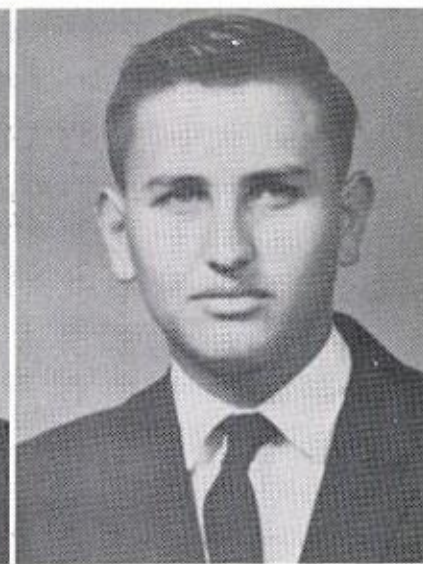

What's on these boys' minds? Most likely the reply from each junior member of the Antler squad will be football.

The junior girls unhappily suffered defeat after hard workouts for the annual powder puff football game against the senior girls.

BEGINNING THEIR SECOND

Sophomores elected Sandra Talbert, president; Don Berry, vice-president; Suzanne Scharnberg, secretary; Carlton White, treasurer; and Ray Bird, reporter, as the 1962 officers.

YEAR OF HIGH SCHOOL

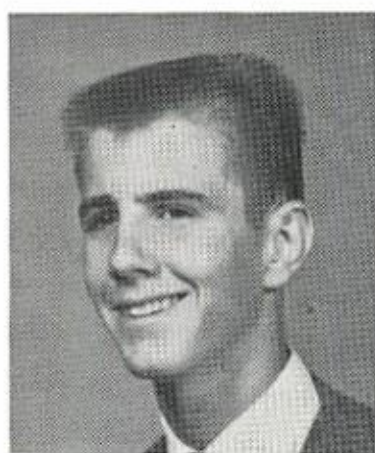

the sophomores of '62 came onto campus with new hopes and ideas for the full schedule of classes and extra-curricular activities.

The usual hustle and bustle of elections took a major portion of the fall season. Sophomores were a part of the out-manuevered underclassmen power puff team.

They again showed their spirit when they laboriously created an "almost" prize-winning float during homecoming week. Sophomore girls climaxed the fall season with the Thanksgiving "Golden Harvest" dance in the Terrace Room of the Blue-bonnet Hotel.

'62 found a sophomore in every crowd as they worked their way into becoming an essential part of Tivy. With a generous sprinkling, they showed up in nearly every organization and event. They are one step ahead of the apprentice freshman and one step nearer the juantiness of a junior.

OH! TO BE

Given the honor of serving as freshman officers are: James McCoy, president; David Schofield, secretary - treasurer; and Javier Vela, vice-president.

A FRESHMAN

New faces, new adjustments, new experiences--almost everything about the first year of high school is new. Nothing equals the experiences of a freshman's first pep rally, first high school dance, and first mid-term exam.

The freshman football team covered itself with glory by winning all but one of its games.

The freshman year with its continuous excitement and perplexities is the beginning of a never-to-be forgotten adventure.

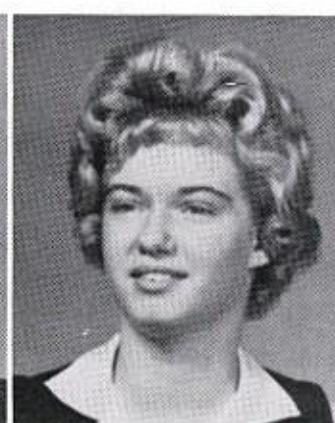

The Western Dance given annually by the freshmen proved to be one of the very best ever. This year saw more freshmen in Band and Antlerettes than ever before in Tivy's history. A freshman can always be identified by a bewildered look and an eager and expectant attitude. How hard it is to smile when the upper-classmen practice their new superiority on them. These are a few of the memories that linger. Yes, the experience of being a freshman is hard to equal.

Freshman girls, Diane Swan, Laurie Jones, Linda Real, Francie Schmerbeck, Marilyn Revely, Jan Weaver, Beth Mosty, Betty Fossler, Carlynn Pressler, and Jane Williams are found gorging and gossiping at a slumber party.
